

Just do it!

Richtige Sammlung von Verpackungen und Bioabfall

Leicht-Verpackung

This panel shows six circular icons representing light packaging: a plastic bag, a white cup, a plastic bottle, a white plate, a plastic container, and a white bowl. To the right is a green bin with a yellow lid, filled with various plastic and paper waste. A yellow label on the bin reads 'Leicht-Verpackung'.

Metall-Verpackung

This panel shows six circular icons representing metal packaging: a metal can, a metal lid, a metal tray, a metal bowl, a metal canister, and a metal bottle. To the right is a green bin with a blue lid, filled with various metal cans and containers. A blue label on the bin reads 'Metall-Verpackung'.

Kartons bitte falten!

Papier

Altpapier

This panel shows six circular icons representing paper and cardboard: a folded newspaper, an open cardboard box, a stack of papers, a stack of books, a paper bag, and a folder. To the right is a green bin with a red lid, filled with newspapers and cardboard boxes. A red label on the bin reads 'Papier'. A text instruction above the icons says 'Kartons bitte falten!' (Please fold cardboard!).

Bioabfall

This panel shows six circular icons representing bio-waste: a banana peel, a slice of pizza, a carrot, a banana, a leaf, and a bunch of flowers. To the right is a brown bin with a brown lid, filled with various food scraps. A brown label on the bin reads 'Bioabfall'.

Weißglas

This panel shows three circular icons representing white glass: a white glass bottle, a white glass jar, and a white glass bottle. To the right is a green bin with a white lid, filled with various white glass bottles and jars. A white label on the bin reads 'Weißglas'.

Buntglas

This panel shows three circular icons representing colored glass: a brown glass bottle, a green glass bottle, and a blue glass bottle. To the right is a green bin with a green lid, filled with various colored glass bottles. A green label on the bin reads 'Buntglas'.